

FY 23 Inservice Training Calendar

Dinner and program related information 6:00 pm
Training begins at 6:30 pm

September 26, 2022 Secondary Trauma The effect it has on professionals, and the different factors that can compound the response to trauma.	October 24, 2022 Improving our work as CASA Advocates Communication and Information Gathering/ Confidentiality/ CASA Connect- What to enter and when	November 28, 2022 Permanency Planning Statute, standards, DHW roles and responsibilities, CASA roles and responsibilities
December TBA Join us at the CASA Open House A judge will be present to swear in new volunteers.	January 30, 2022 YES Youth Empowerment Services is Idaho's mental health system of care that helps families access services. Our trainer will help us to understand this great resource	February 27, 2022 Diversity and Inclusion Trainer TBA
March 27, 2022 Stewards of Children How to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse Child Abuse Awareness Month Update	April 24, 2022 Child Protection Panel Judge, DHW, prosecutor, PD, child attorney, Parent, child, and aged out youth will answer your burning questions	May 29, 2022 Independent Living What does it look like for youth aging out of foster care? Learn about the Youth Bill of Rights, Casey Life skills and resources.
June A list of books and webinars will be available on our website for your summer learning	July	August

Statute and NCASA Standards require volunteers to receive 12 hours* of in-service training per year.

*No more than 4 hours of in-service training can be reading books or webinars.

We will also be providing a 12-hour training, Trust Based Relational Intervention during this training year. It will most likely be a two-day training. Stay tuned! This is a great training you won't want to miss.